ella georgia jewellery www.ellageorgiajewellery.co.uk

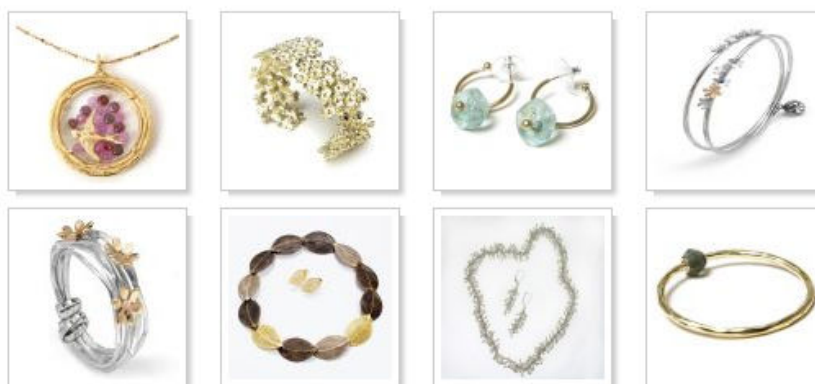

ella georgia jewellery – jewellery with heart – offers a range of stylish ethically and sustainably sourced jewellery and accessories. A beautiful on line boutique showing limited edition pieces from the ella georgia collections and those of over 20 other designers from the UK and worldwide. I personally design two or three ella georgia collections a season, working with current trends and colours from the catwalk.

In my own designs, or those of other talented designers, you'll find beautiful pieces to take you from day through to evening – to enhance and complement whatever you are wearing, providing that all important finishing touch to the look you want to achieve.

Whether you are seeking something unique and original, sleek and contemporary, classic and sophisticated, or traditional with a modern twist, we have an exciting range of stylish and affordable pieces. It's jewellery that's pleasurable to wear, beautiful to look at and designed to be as individual as you are.

Bespoke commissions are welcome on request.
